IOL Facilitating Experiential Learning Outdoors

What is it?

An exciting, two-day course to develop awareness of a spectrum of facilitation skills and their relevance for different learning outcomes, groups and activities in a variety of outdoor settings.

This course is essential for anyone working in the UK or overseas who will be responsible for facilitating a group's experiential learning.

How long does it last?

Two days. (9am – 5pm each day)

What does it cover?

- Understand the importance of facilitation skills in delivering sessions.
- Develop awareness of the learning environment.
- Diagnose learning needs using a structured process.
- Use framing techniques where appropriate.
- Use review processes to highlight learning.
- Explain some action planning techniques to help participants transfer the learning back home.
- Practice a process to review your own facilitation.

Do I get a certificate?

Yes – you will be issued a certificate of attendance by the Institute of Outdoor Learning (www.outdoor-learning.org).
