Water Safety Management Programme (RLSS)

What is it?

The RLSS certificated Water Safety Management Programme is a practical training course looking at increasing safety awareness when managing groups by or in water and providing basic water rescue techniques. The emphasis is placed on awareness of key safety issues with a variety of water environments to avoid the incident from occurring in the first place.

This course is essential for anyone working in the UK or overseas who will be responsible for managing groups by or in the water for recreation.

How long does it last?

Two days. Travel may be involved during the course to reach different water environments (transport is not provided as part of the course).

What does it cover?

Training is modular as follows:

- Basic water safety module (6 hours) – Day 1
- Pool specific module (4 hours) – Day 1
- River environments (4 hours) – Day 2
- Beach environments (4 hours) – Day 2

Often delivered with:

- Incident Management Training
- First Aid

Do I get a certificate?

Yes – you will be issued a certificate of competency issued by the Royal Life Saving Society (RLSS).

Who should I contact?
